

Mr. Clinton, that may work for a while. But, unlike P.T. Barnum's theory, Abraham Lincoln had a much better one. "You can fool some of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all the people all of the time." And that is a truth that we can count on.

CAMPAIGN FINANCE REFORM

(Mr. PASCRELL asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. PASCRELL. Mr. Speaker, the efforts of the freshman task force have given us a very real chance for meaningful campaign finance reform. I am committed to seeing that this opportunity is not lost. It is incumbent upon this Congress that we honestly address the many flaws in the current system by which we finance our campaigns. I believe the very credibility of not just this Congress but of the entire institution is at stake.

The sad reality is that the American public holds Congress in very low esteem. We cannot reasonably expect to effectively carry out our duties as Congressmen if we lack credibility.

Whether we want to admit it or not, the fact is that our campaign finance system is jeopardizing our own credibility. We should not fool ourselves into believing that the problem is only the illegal activities that occur during campaigns. Quite to the contrary, the real problems stem from what is legal.

I hope that we will address, Mr. Speaker, the growing problem of the way soft money is influencing this system; and the sooner we do it, the better we will be in terms of getting back our own credibility.

TIME TO MARK END OF AN ERA

(Mr. GUTKNECHT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GUTKNECHT. Mr. Speaker, unfortunately, it is time to mark the end of an era, and that era lasted only 2 years.

On January 23, 1996, just 2 short years ago, the President declared in his State of the Union address that "the era of big government is over." Now it appears that that era is over.

When we came to Washington just a few years ago, we were looking at a $250 billion deficit as far as the eye could see. We set to work to eliminate programs to reform the entitlements; and, as a result, we are looking at the first balanced budget in a generation.

Last August, we had an agreement with the President. We set very tough spending caps for the next 5 years. That is represented here by this blue line. The red line shows what the President is supporting this year in his budget. He is talking about spending over $100 billion more than we agreed to last August, and he is also talking about raising taxes and fees by over $100 billion.

Unfortunately, it sounds like the era of big government is not over, but the era of talking about the era of big government is really over.

ABSOLUTELY INCREDIBLE KID DAY

(Mr. SANDLIN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. SANDLIN. Mr. Speaker, the words today for the children of America are praise and encouragement. Today is national Absolutely Incredible Kid Day, a day each of us can reach out to the young people in America in our lives and let them know how much we appreciate them. Sponsored by the Campfire Boys and Girls, Southwest Airlines, Yahoo, PaperMate and caring individuals all across this great Nation, Absolutely Incredible Kids Day is an annual event designed to bring adults and children closer together by encouraging children in a positive and meaningful way and letting them know how important they are in our lives. The goal of Absolutely Incredible Kids Day is for every child in America, every child in America, to receive a letter from an adult in his or her life encouraging him, praising him and letting him know that he is appreciated. It is a simple goal, but a goal that can make a great difference in a child's life.

Last year was the Inaugural of Absolutely Incredible Kids Day. Participation throughout the country was absolutely enormous. Everyone from the President of the United States to employees of corporations, to caring individuals sent a letter to let a child know that he or she is special. I urge all my colleagues to reach out to the children of America. As a father of 4, I agree and encourage Members to do that and tell them that it will make a difference.

THE REAL MEANING OF CONSERVATISM

(Mr. ROGAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ROGAN. Mr. Speaker, I hear from my liberal friends that labels do not mean much anymore. If that is true, then why do liberals believe that Americans are undertaxed, and conservatives know that Americans are overtaxed? Why do liberals attack Republican proposals to cut taxes, while Republicans fight so the middle class will not be forced to send so much of their income back to Washington?

Mr. Speaker, when families complain that it is harder to get ahead today than it was in their parents' day, one big reason is because government takes so much more of their family income. Whether one parent works or both parents work, Washington stands as an obstacle to families getting ahead, by taking money out of their pockets and pouring it down the black hole of wasteful and ineffective Washington bureaucracies.

The tax burden keeps going up and up while the government's ability to deliver on its promises keeps going down and down. Washington must offer a better deal to America's families. It is the responsibility of Congress to promote that dream.

RAISE MINIMUM WAGE

(Ms. DELAURO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, minimum wage workers in America make less today than they did in 1968 when inflation is taken into account. That really is outrageous and it is time to raise the minimum wage. You cannot raise a family on $5.15 an hour these days, even when you are working full-time. A minimum wage family earns $10,700 a year. That is just not enough.

Republican Members, it is worth noting, made more money in the days when they shut down the United States Government 2 years ago than a minimum wage worker made in full that entire year.

Democrats have a proposal to increase the minimum wage from $5.15 per hour to $6.15 per hour by the turn of the century, 50 cents a year. This body needs to recognize the importance of millions of Americans who get up every single morning and who go to work in our factories, in our office buildings and in our restaurants. We need to raise the minimum wage. I urge the Republican leadership to schedule that kind of a vote today and help working middle class families in this country.

SILENCE SPEAKS VOLUMES

(Mr. HEFLEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. HEFLEY. Mr. Speaker, a White House official was quoted in the New York Times last month referring to "our continuing campaign to destroy Ken Starr." Listen to that again, and I am quoting, "our continuing campaign to destroy Ken Starr." Here is a White House spokesman openly acknowledging their despicable strategy to destroy Judge Starr, the special counsel named by a 3-judge panel to investigate allegations of serious wrongdoings by the President.

Am I to conclude that the Democratic Party thinks it is okay to smear the independent counsel? Am I to conclude that the Democratic Party does not care that the White House was in possession of 900 FBI files of Republicans, in gross violation of law and the civil rights of American citizens? Am I to conclude that the Democratic Party
